Use Cases

STRATEGIC IMPLEMENTATION

- Establish long-term positions within fixed income allocations
- Pursue specific goals based on investment policy considerations
- Redeploy broad bond market allocations into more precise exposures

TACTICAL POSITIONING

- Express opportunistic views on specific bond market categories
- Rapidly implement short-term trading strategies
- Manage credit cycle and interest rate risks

CASH MANAGEMENT & DIVERSIFICATION

- Manage strategic cash with short duration U.S. Treasury ETFs
- Utilize as investment placeholders while ramping-up new mandates, sourcing new bonds, or managing rebalancing activity
- Increase diversification, reducing idiosyncratic risk from individual securities

Carefully consider the Funds' investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. This and other information can be found in the Funds' prospectus or, if available, the summary prospectus, which may be obtained by visiting www.bondbloxxetf.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

There are risks associated with investing, including possible loss of principal. Fixed income investments are subject to interest rate risk; their value will normally decline as interest rates rise. Fixed income investments are also subject to credit risk, the risk that the issuer of a bond will fail to pay interest and principal in a timely manner, or that negative perceptions of the issuer's ability to make such payments will cause the price of that bond to decline. Investing in mortgage- and asset-backed securities involves interest rate, credit, valuation, extension and liquidity risks and the risk that payments on the underlying assets are delayed, prepaid, subordinated or defaulted on. Investment grade bonds have ratings of BBB- or above. High yield bonds have ratings of BB+ and below.

Bond ratings are grades given to bonds that indicate their credit quality as determined by private independent ratings services, such as Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Fitch. These firms evaluate a bond issuer's financial strength or its ability to pay a bond's principal and interest in a timely fashion. Ratings are expressed as letters ranging from 'AAA', which are the highest grade, to 'D', which is the lowest grade.
